The Educational Psychology Team

We are a team of supportive, enthusiastic and skilled educational psychologists with experience ranging from our highly valued trainees to those who have been with the service for many years - which is testament to our positive approach.

We are part of the Inclusion Service in Portsmouth City Council's Education Department and our key purpose is to help promote all aspects of a child or young person's development by using psychology to make a positive difference. The EP Team is held in high regard with involvement valued across a range of projects in education and social care. We operate a model of traded service which allows us to support schools directly and focus on early intervention. We also fulfil the statutory function of the Education Department and have built strong relationships with our SEN Team which enables collaborative working.

Our team tell us that we are:

'A good place to work and a good team to work with. Amazing opportunities as a newly qualified EP. Professional views are valued from day one'.

If you have a proactive approach, the ability to work flexibly and are committed to working in co-production with families and stakeholders, we would love to hear from you. You will be certain of a warm welcome, a thorough induction and a varied and interesting role in our team.

Why Portsmouth?

- Portsmouth City Council is a needs-led Local Authority where relationships are valued as the foundation upon which the most effective and positive change can be supported.
- Portsmouth is a small, high population area. This means that there is a wide range of varied work supporting our community's diverse needs.
- We are committed to enhancing children's development and potential through adopting person-centred approaches in all we do.
- Our Educational Psychologists engage in interesting and varied work. We operate a growing model of traded service which allows us to support schools directly and focus on early intervention and systemic work.
- The EP Team is held in high regard with involvement valued across a range of projects (ELSA, Relational Practice, Literacy support, EBSA, Supporting children from armed forces families).
- We have excellent relationships and work collaboratively with other teams across education and inclusion including the early years, Portage, virtual school and Multi-disciplinary Neurodiversity teams.
- We have excellent links with Southampton University with EPs providing support to Trainee EPs through the academic tutor and fieldwork supervisor roles. We seek out regular opportunities to engage Trainee EPs in relevant research projects for the benefit all service users with SEND.
- We meet regularly as a team through our service meetings and our monthly Continuing Professional Development programme, shaped by the needs of the Team, with psychology and professional issues at its' core.
- We value and commit dedicated time to fortnightly peer supervision.
- We have a well-developed induction process which enables staff to meet with key members of the Inclusion Service of which we are part and provides opportunities to get to know our more specialist provisions and attend meetings where some of the key decision-making processes happen.

- We offer a flexible working environment with excellent assistance from our business support team.
- We are currently reviewing our pay and team structure to support competitive pay and development of specialisms within the team so that there are clear routes for progression and career development for the team.
- Portsmouth city council also offers access to our Employee Assistance Programme – a 24 hour independent, free and confidential advice and support service, access to the Local Government Pension Scheme and generous employee benefits including staff discounts.

What is the role?

The post will include:

- Applying psychology through the delivery of services to a cluster of schools within Portsmouth.
- Multi-agency working to support children and families.
- Opportunities to engage in the development and delivery of training and workforce development across the city, for example Restorative and Attachment Aware approaches and ELSA.
- Opportunities to engage in strategic developments; for example with SEMH, and Neurodiversity and literacy difficulties.
- Opportunities to work with EPs to develop our practice and policy, always aiming to improve outcomes for children and young people.
- Contribution to the statutory assessment and monitoring and review of children with SEND.
- Autonomy to employ the evidence-based psychological practice that you feel best meets needs (e.g. dynamic and standardised assessment methods used equally across the team).
- Full working knowledge and adherence to the underlying values, principles and policy of Portsmouth Local Safeguarding Children's Board, including integrated working responsibilities, early help and safeguarding practices.

Who is the person?

Portsmouth Educational Psychology Team can offer you support and opportunities, whether you are at the start of your EP career or if you are looking for a new challenge or change.
